COMMUNICATION CLUBS

Communication Matters
more than just talking

Communication Matters is delighted to be able to promote and support this new venture with funding from National Lottery England.

COMMUNITY FUND

Communication Clubs are about connecting with other Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) users, having opportunities to socialise and meet friends and work together (peer support).

WHAT ARE COMMUNICATION CLUBS?

Communication Clubs provide time and space for AAC users to get together with other AAC users and develop their communication skills.

A COMMUNICATION CLUB PACK INCLUDES:

- How to do a risk assessment
- Planning and communications templates
- Top tips for setting up and facilitating a club
- Presentation slides
- Activities based on topics and themes
- Support for accredited (NCFE) and non-accredited learning and development

CLUBS CAN BE SUPPORTED BY:

- Teachers
- Speech and language therapists
- Parents
- AAC qualified mentors who have completed the Level 1 in Mentoring qualification
