

Communication Matters

more than just talking

Join CM and make a difference

Communication Matters (CM) is a UK-wide charity which works for and brings together everybody who has an interest in AAC (Augmentative and Alternative Communication). Membership includes AAC users, family members, professionals who support them and suppliers who design and manufacture AAC solutions.

Communication Matters has a wide range of activities with the aims of:

- increasing awareness about AAC
- improving service standards
- encouraging research
- lobbying government for change

Annual Membership

Members of CM are joining an active community and can:

- attend the CM International AAC conference (registration fee applies)
- receive 3 copies of CM Journal with articles by AAC users, family members and professionals
- reduced rate to attend CM Study Days & CM AAC Information Days
- International Membership - receive electronic copies of ISAAC news bulletins and reduced rate subscription to journals, newsletters and Biennial Conference

Free services delivered by Communication Matters include:

- an online AAC Forum – where ideas and advice are freely exchanged
- E-News from Communication Matters delivered via email
- access to the latest information on a wide range of AAC issues
- consultation and workshops influencing the future of AAC provision and service

AAC users and family members can apply for a FREE MEMBERSHIP in their first year

To find out more and download a membership form for GROUPS or INDIVIDUALS visit www.communicationmatters.org.uk call 0113 343 1533 or email admin@communicationmatters.org.uk

