

Communication Matters Relaxed Exhibition

Date: Sunday, 13 September

Time: 2:30 – 5:00 P.M.

Location: The Refectory, University of Leeds

The Relaxed Exhibition is a free, pre-conference event for people interested in learning more about Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) in a quieter environment. With restricted numbers of exhibition delegates, we aim to reduce auditory and visual stimulation while meeting AAC Exhibitors.

The exhibition will be held in the Refectory (29 on the campus map), which is located in the Leeds University Union building. Registration will be in the Refectory Foyer.

What to expect:

Learning about augmentative & alternative communication (AAC)

The opportunity to meet exhibitors and try their equipment

A quieter environment within the conference exhibition hall (reduced background noise, less auditory and visual stimulation)

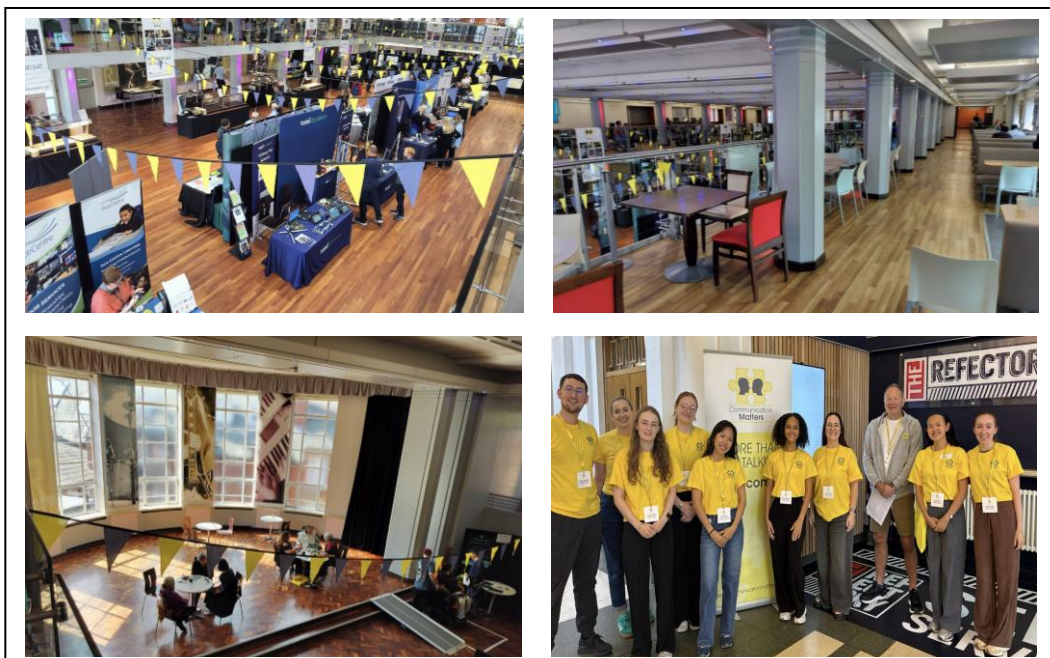

Less people than the larger conference exhibition will have

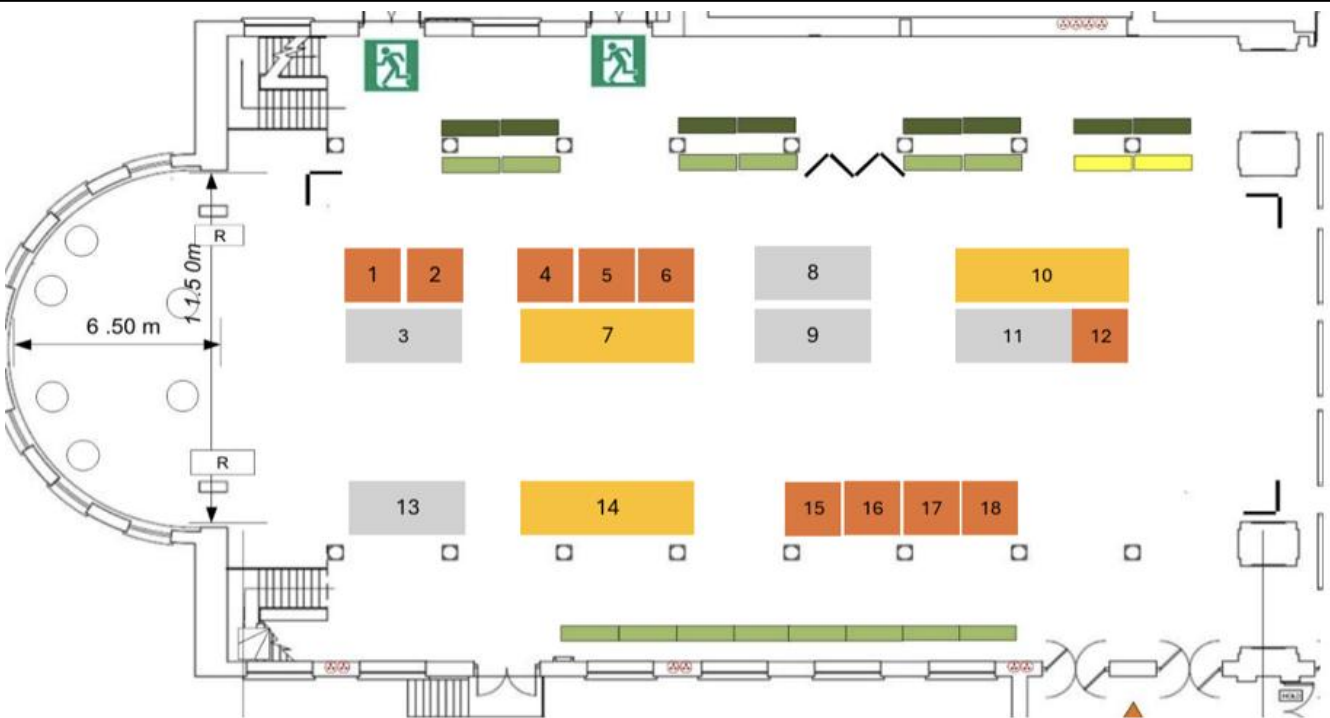

More space to move through the exhibition

A quiet space in the adjacent LUU foyer to move to if needed

Communication Matters trustees and staff will be present to answer any questions

Earplugs will be available upon request from the CM stand (12 on plan)
